

PRIVACY POLICY

Last updated: October 5, 2026

1. INTRODUCTION

X-Risk Book LLC ("we", "our", or "us") operates xriskbooks.com. X-Risk Book LLC is a Delaware-based company that recommends books about the risks of artificial intelligence and directs readers to buy them through Amazon. This policy explains what information the site handles and why. It's short because we collect very little.

2. INFORMATION WE COLLECT

- No account or form data. The site has no accounts, sign-ups, mailing list, comment forms or payment pages.
- Technical data. Like every website, ours runs on a hosting provider, Microsoft Azure, which receives your IP address, browser type and the pages you request in order to deliver the site and keep it secure.
- Email. If you email us, we receive your address and message and use them only to reply.
- Favorites. Links you mark as favorites in the Links list are saved in your own browser and never sent to us.

We don't use analytics, advertising or tracking cookies, and we don't sell or share personal information.

3. THIRD-PARTY SERVICES

- Amazon. Book links go to Amazon. As an Amazon Associate, we may earn a commission on purchases; Amazon's reports to us don't identify you. Amazon's privacy notice covers anything you do on its site.
- Adobe Fonts. The site's typefaces are served by Adobe Fonts, which receives your IP address and counts page views to license the fonts, under Adobe's privacy policy.
- AnyFlip. The An AI-Safety Primer flipbook is hosted by AnyFlip and only loads when you open it. AnyFlip's privacy policy applies to it.
- Other websites. Sites we link to are governed by their own policies.

4. COOKIES

See our Cookies Policy.

5. YOUR RIGHTS

While we do not explicitly comply with GDPR, we respect your privacy rights. Since we keep nothing about you beyond any email you send us, you can ask us to delete that correspondence at any time.

6. CHANGES TO THIS POLICY

If we change this policy, we'll post the new version here and update the date at the top.
